GEORGE T. FEY,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Begs leave to inform the good people of Atlanta, and also those of Fulton, DeKalb, and adjoining counties, that he has located his office in Ball's Building, East side of Whitehall street, in the said city of Atlanta, where he may be found and consulted upon business, every day (Sundays excepted), from 7 o'clock, A. M., to 6 o'clock, P. M. He will give diligent, careful, and prompt attention to all business confided to his care.

He will make a specialty of the following grades of business, to-wit: The collection of debts, and settlement of all money demands, and of all demands growing out of contracts between man and man, all matters appertaining to, or growing out of the Homestead Law.

Parties desiring to avail themselves of the benefits intended to be conferred by the Homestead Law, are respectfully invited to come to my office for any information they may desire concerning the said law. Also, will attend specially to all matters in Bankruptcy; and he begs leave to say to the unfortunate debtor, that the time wherein you will be allowed the full benefit of the Bankrupt Law, will expire on the first day of January, 1869; after that time you must pay fifty per centum of your indebtedness, or else you cannot have the benefit of the law, except by the consent of a majority, in number and value, of your creditors, which consent you will not be likely to obtain. If you are in debt $300, or upwards, and feel that you cannot pay out, without subjecting yourself and family to great hardships and inconvenience come to my office, and I will assist you to be relieved from all your distresses and embarrassments, by filing a petition for you for that purpose.

Be sure to make application before the 31st day of December, or else you will be too late! too late!

The citizens are specially invited to come to my office to consult me on any business they may desire to have attended to. They will always find me in my office in a good humor, always glad to see you, and ready to give you a hearty, old-fashioned welcome, and will always be ready to attend to your business for you.

Office over Alexander's Hardware and Bradfield's Drug Store, stairway running up between the two, on the same floor of the Southern and St. Louis Life Insurance offices.

Respectfully, GEO. T. FEY.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FEBRUARY 5.

Last Night but One.

To-night is the last night but one of the appearance of those distinguished artistes Mr. and Mrs. Watkins. The great drama of "Kathleen Mavourneen," description of Irish character, Irish homes and Irish hearts, drew a crowded house last night. Words fail to convey the high appreciation by the public of Mr. and Mrs. Watkins.—Sufficient to say, that they enacted the character of "Terence O'Moore" and "Kathleen Mavourneen" so life-like, that the auditory imagined that the real, bona fide personages stood before them. To-night, Mrs. Watkins will appear as "Josephine" the operatic military drama of "The Child of the Regiment," in which she will introduce the principal gems from the popular comic opera of "La Grand Duchess," Mr. Watkins will appear as Sergeant Annibal Scalade of the 21st. The laughable farce of "It takes two to Quarrel" will conclude the entertainment. A rich treat is in store, and we advise "everybody and his wife" to go and enjoy the rich feast spread before them.

Stay at Home, If You have One.

Mr. F. L. B. Goodwin, a gentleman of this State, who went to California last spring to mend his broken fortunes, writes back the following letter:

"If those restless, dissatisfied persons who think that every other place is better than home, would take the advice of many who have learned by experience, they would remain where they are. It cannot be denied that almost every new country, especially California, possesses many advantages, over the older States and presents many alluring inducements to the young and energetic; but tell all who contemplate leaving home and its hallowed associations, to remember that "distance lends enchantment to the view," and that in most instances it is better to endure temporary inconveniences and reverses of fortune than "fly to ills they know not of." The majority of those who have left the South to seek fortunes in Brazil, Mexico or the Western wilds, have experienced sad and bitter disappointments. Fruitless enterprises, dissipation, ruined health, and perished hopes have resulted from following the waves of excitement which have so long lashed the Pacific slope."

Sale of the Planters' Hotel, Augusta.

The Augusta Press, of Wednesday, says this well and valuable property was disposed of yesterday by the United States Marshal for the Southern District of Georgia, W. G. Dickson, in obedience to a writ issued by the Fifth Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Georgia, in the case of Messrs. E. V. Haughwout & Co. vs. T. S. Nickerson. It was bid in by Mr. Jacob R. Davis for the sum of $38.600, as generally understood, for Mr. David L. Curtis, of this city.

The sale of the furniture and fixtures has been postponed to Thursday next.

To the Members of the Press Association.

The Augusta Constitutionalist says, we are authorized to state that the Hon. John P. King, President of the Georgia and West Point and Atlanta Railroads, will pass from Augusta to West Point and return such editors or proprietors of newspapers as desire attending the Mobile Convention. It is requested of all representatives of the Press, that they bring with them such credentials as will be recognized and endorsed by conductors.

Henry W. Longfellow, George B. Cheever and Nathaniel Hawthorne graduated at Bowdoin College in the class of 1825, which numbered thirty-eight. Numbers one and two in rank in the class are quite unknown in the literary world. Longfellow ranked number four, and Cheever number eight, while Hawthorne seems to have had no aspiration for college honors, and was so low down as not to be ranked at all. Who did ever hear of "number one" amounting to anything in the struggle for life?

Real Estate.

On yesterday, Col. G. W. Adair sold a vacant lot on Peachtree street, next to Lovejoy's store, 25 feet front and 125 feet depth for $163 a front foot, or $4,075. Willis Chisolm, Esq., was the purchaser. The bidding by non-residents was spirited.—The lots on Cain street sold at prices fifty per cent. in advance of former prices for lots of similar size.

We publish on our fourth page the card of Hon. C. C. Cleghorn, one of the Finance Committee, disclaiming any approval, by him, of the press telegram sent over the State several days since, purporting to come from that committee.

Public Documents.

We are indebted to S. F. Gove, M. C., for valuable public documents.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—SENATE.—Petitions were presented for a Constitutional amendment recognizing God.

The resolution for a night session to consider the suffrage amendment is pending.

HOUSE.—Boutwell, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to secure prize money to Farragut's force for captures at New Orleans. It allows any U. S. District Court to take cognizance of suits for the recovery of such prize money.

The Reconstruction Committee refuse to hear further verbal testimony or speeches regarding Mississippi.

In the Supreme Court, Judge Underwood acknowledges the service of writs of prohibition. The case will come up on its merits next Friday. The case involves the right of Judge Underwood, of Virginia, to nullify Virginia judicial decisions because the officers of the courts were ineligible under the 14th amendment.

The Senate last night was devoted to private land bills.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, February 5, 1869.

House met pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Brantley.

Journal read and approved.

Mr. SCOTT, of Floyd, moved to reconsider the action of the House yesterday in adopting Mr. Price's resolution. He said that this resolution meant that the negro should be re-seated if this Court decided them eligible, or it was a farce. He reviewed in an earnest and able manner all the arguments that had been advanced in favor of the resolution, and urged the reconsideration of it.

Mr. MORGAN was opposed to reconsideration, and said that some extraordinary positions had been taken, and referred to the charges made by Mr. O'Neal in the discussion of this resolution. He said Congress had no right now to interfere in this matter, the question was res adjudicata. He did not concede the right of Congress to interfere in this matter under any state of circumstances. But the resolution was passed simply to show to the world that this is a question that belongs to the Courts and not to the Legislature. We have nothing to do with it but to refer it, and if they decide that the negro is eligible, the decision has nothing to do with this body.

Mr. O'NEAL explained what he meant by what he charged against the Democrats about this question.

Mr. FELDER asked him if he did not pretend to be a great friend of the negro at last session, and when the question came up on unseating them, if he did not dodge?

Mr. O'NEAL said he was not then in favor of them holding seats, and told his people that he was not in public speech, and he did not think that was dodging the question. He said the Supreme Court would not take cognizance of this question if sent to them.

Mr. RAWLS—Thought this House was KuKluxed. Gentlemen spoke as if they had committed some grave crime. We have done nothing that we are ashamed of. I have no objection to referring this question simply to the Courts, but to say we shall make a case I object. Congress has refused to receive our Senators, this is all they can do. We have a Legislature composed exclusively of white men, and I think we have the best of the trade.

Mr. TUMLIN—Called the previous question. Lost.

Mr. SHUMATE—We have been charged with dishonesty and duplicity by the gentleman from Lowndes. He thought that suspicion haunts the guilty mind, and he had shown by his actions by dodging the question, and at this session in season and out of season he thrusts agitating questions upon this House.

We are not bound so much for what we did, as for the spirit in which we did. The reference of this question to the Supreme Court will show that we were actuated by an honest disire to comply with the law. We did it under our oaths, and are not afraid to let the Court examine the law. Is there any harm in that, any duplicity, or dishonesty? I think not. He hoped the resolution would stand as adopted.

Mr. PHILLIPS—Said that a decision by the Courts that the negro was eligible, would not affect the question as to the eligibility and right to seats on this floor. He reviewed the arguments for and against the question. He did not wish and would not dodge any issue in it. He would beard the lion in his den, let the consequence be what it would.

Mr. LANE said the only question now that had not been discussed was, is there not a probability that Congress or some power would take action in the premises. If you think they will not, then we should vote it down; if there is any probability that they will, then we should take this action, and there is great necessity for it. This is the gist of the whole subject: if this question goes to the courts, they do not make the law, they construe, they cannot alter or amend the law they decided what is the law, and that is what is desired. I am satisfied that the best we can do is to refer this matter to the courts where it belongs.

Mr. KELLEY called the previous question, which was sustained and the yeas and nays required, and

"The Land and Immigration Bill."

Under the above head we published a communication this morning, from a clear and practical thinker, and a distinguished Georgian, to which we invite the special attention of the Legislature.

The Base of all Other Interests.

All other interests in Georgia being secondary to agriculture, we should look steadily and closely to its advancement.

We should bear in mind this fact that, however much we deplore the present political condition of the country, we have no power to remedy or change it in the least. We cannot be too deeply impressed with the conviction that our present escape must be through higher and nobler agencies than mere political ones. If we have no instrumentality in the settlement of the perplexing questions with which we are beset, we can appeal from them, ignore their existence, and invoke the powers and energies of nature in our behalf. We have seed, time and harvest in which to sow and reap, as though no political earthquake had ever shivered us. The same prolific earth teems with luxuriance under our feet, and the same sky rests above our heads to cheer and bless us with its genial warmth, as if in politics, religion and government we ruled the whole world.

Then let us take fresh courage, apply the means at hand and make the most of the situation. By developing the resources of our own State, by causing two blades of grass to grow where but one grew heretofore we will acquire influence and position which we cannot have without.

A Georgia Star on the New York Boards.

Among the players noticed by the New York press, says the Savannah news, at the recent opening of John Brougham's New Theatre, Miss Effie Germon, the leading comedienne, received especial commendation. She is a native of Augusta, in this State, and bids fair to attain a high rank in her profession. Ill health and the slow ascent of fame's ladder have kept her in the rear of others, who, with half the talent, have risen rapidly. Her face, which the New York World pronounces "singularly beautiful and intelligent," together with a fine person, voice and admirable talents and attainments, will soon bring her friends and fortune before the footlights of Brougham's Bijou.

No. 1.—Benj. Barrow. vs. John W. Burney et. al.—Complaint from Jasper, was argued by Geo. N. Bartlett for plaintiff in error, and Lofton and Hutchenson for defendant in error.

No. 3.—Leroy M. Wilson et. al., vs. M. C. Whitfield et. al—from Jasper, was argued by Judge A. Reese for plaintiff in error. He was replied to by B. H. Hill for the defendant in error, who spoke till anjournment. Col. Lofton will follow B. H. Hill on the same side. The argument will be concluded by Hon. Joshua Hill.

The other continued cause and Nos. 2 and 4 of this Circuit being withdrawn, there are but two more cases in this Circuit. Besides them there are two other cases, one from Pataula and one from Middle, put to the heel of the term. It will take perhaps two Monday's to finish the argument of this term.

REPORT ON THE CONDITION OF THE SOUTH.—The Cincinnati Commercial's correspondent says Generals Barber and Babcock, of General Grant's staff, have returned from their tour of inspection through the Southern States. They visited every military post in the country through which they traveled, and will make an extended written report to General Grant. They represent North Carolina as in the best condition, and next stands Alabama. The worst state of affairs exists in Georgia, and some legislation from Congress to secure the rights of the loyal people in that State will be recommended. They say the negroes were in the right in the Ogeechee troubles, and they should be protected. Notwithstanding the militia troubles in Arkansas, the State is in a flourishing condition.

The Land and Immigration Bill.

Editor Constitution: I came to your city with apprehensions that owing to the hardness of the times there would be but few of the planters of the State present at the meeting of our Society. But I am agreeably disappointed. Such a gathering of the tillers of the soil I have not seen before in this State. I have seen a greater number drawn together by curiosity to see the exhibitions at our fairs, but never have I seen such an earnest crowd of planters in council. Every one present seemed deeply engaged, and contributed freely his mite towards the perfection of plows, and measures that were put in operation for the advancement of the great agricultural interests of the State. I cannot now speak of all the measures upon which action was taken by the Society. The full proceedings will shortly be published, and will be eagerly read by the people. But I will say that the action taken in calling upon the Legislature to pass a bill to favor immigration to our State, is one of great importance. I am glad to hear that a bill has been introduced into each House, and that the committees of both the House report in favor of its passage, and that it will come up for action on Tuesday next.

I shall not allow myself to doubt but that it will pass both Houses. There is too much good sense in this Legislature to avoid seeing the absolute necessity for such a law.

Some suppose that it is in contemplation by the friends of this scheme to dispose of Cuffee, and drive him from the State. Never was there a greater mistake. It is true that the introduction of foreign white laborers will, to some extent, compete with negro laborers now here.

Who is to be injured by this? No one; for there is work enough for all. Wages may rule lower, but that will be a blessing. The world wants cheap labor as well as cheap goods; but under all circumstances the laborer will be paid a good compensation whilst cotton commands the present prices.

My notion is, that there are not now in the State colored men for field laborers that can supply the demand from the cotton belt proper of the State. Let the large body of them seek the lower latitudes, and there will be no conflict, for the white laborer will suit the climate of upper Georgia, and it is doubtful whether they could stand the climate of the lower sections. Let this course be observed, and all portions of the State will be served, and there will be no surplus in either section.

There are now employed in the cotton fields of Georgia about 100,000 laborers, producing, with favorable seasons, from 350,000 to 400,000 bales of cotton. With an increase of 100,000 laborers we can easily double the crop of Georgia by the improved system of agriculture, upon the same surface now being planted. If necessary, four times the amount now being cultivated could be planted; so it will be perceived that Cuffee has a home for all time in the future, if he will only work the cotton. Whether he will do—is a question for the future. I think the introduction of foreign laborers will form an incentive for him to do so.

Away, then, with this notion. The bill calls for $10,000 to put it in operation. This is a paltry sum to devote to such a great work. Will it pay? Every man with bone and muscle that makes his home here is a contribution to the wealth of the State.

Labor is the source of all wealth. There is no other mode of increasing our wealth. It would pay back an increased income to the State the first year. And if any doubt what a wise system of immigration will do for the State, in a few years, look at the North-Western States. But a few years since and that whole country was a wilderness, and now in less than half a century the centre of population has gone near 1,000 miles to the West.

The tax-payers of Georgia, the solid men of the State, call upon their members to pass this bill. Do your duty, and the future will bless you as faithful servants.

SOUTH-WESTERN GEORGIA.

DECISIONS

OF THE

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Delivered at Atlanta, January 26, 1869.

FURNISHED BY N. J. HAMMOND, SUPREME COURT REPORTER, EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

O. A. Lochrane. Plaintiff in error, vs. Wm. Solomon, Defendant in error. Motion for new trial from Bibb.

BROWN, C. J.—L., who owed S. $1,000, for which S. held L's. note, and mortgage on a printing press, sold the press to C. for $5,000, and C. agreed to pay the $1,000 to S., and satisfy the note and mortgages, but S. refused to release L. and take C. for the debt. There was evidence before the jury, however, that S. agreed to take C. as collateral, and afterwards agreed to give C. time on the $1,000 which he was to pay for L., if he would pay him 2½ per cent. per month for the indulgence, which he did for three or four months.

1. Held, that it was error in the Court in his charge to the jury, to restrict them to the single inquiry whether C. was substituted as the debtor in place of L.

2. If C. agreed to pay the debt of L. to S. in a short time, and S. having accepted the liability of C. as collateral, afterwards for a valuable consideration extended the time of payment for three or four months, as he had the right to do at his own wish, L. could not sue C. during that time, and S. was liable to L. for any damage sustained by L. on account of such indulgence given by S. to C.

Judgment reversed.

McCAY, J., concurred in the judgment.

WARNER, J., dissenting.—In my judgment there was no error in the court below in overruling the motion for a new trial on the ground that the verdict was contrary to the evidence. The court was not requested in writing to charge the jury upon any part of the evidence and there was no exception taken, that the charge of the Judge did not cover all the facts proved. The charge of the court excepted to was not error in view of the evidence contained in the record. The defendant was the principal debtor, and not a surety, and the loss of which he complains did not spring out of or result from any agreement made between Crawford and Solomon which would operate as a legal discharge of the debt, but from a cause entirely independent of that alleged agreement. From the facts disclosed by the record and my understanding of the law applicable thereto, I am of opinion the judgment of the court below should be affirmed.

Cobb and Jackson, by Judges Clarke and Lyon for plaintiff in error.

W. Poe, for defendant in error.

Samuel T. Baily, Plaintiff in error, vs. E. L. Stroecker, Defendant in error, mandamus from Bibb.

BROWN, C. J.—When an attachment was levied upon fifty shares of the capital stock of a corporate company, and sold at Sheriff's sales, it was the duty of the Sheriff to give certificates of purchase to the highest bidder, and on presentation of such certificates to the proper officer of the corporation, it was his duty to make the necessary transfer of the stock to the purchaser on the books of the Company. In such case the Sheriff does not put the purchaser in possession, but the officer of the corporation is, pro hac vice, a public officer under the Code charged with that duty, and if he refuses to do it, mandamus is the proper proceeding to compel its performance.

Judgment reversed.

S. T. Bailey, by the Reporter, for plaintiff in error.

H. W. Cowles, by B. Hill, for defendant in error.

John T. Williams, et. al., plaintiff in error, vs. James M. Mobley, executor, &c., defendant in error; Equity—From Harris.

BROWN, C. J.—The minor legatees under a will, who are not the children of the testator, have no right, in a case pending in Chancery upon a bill filed by the executor for direction, to an interlocutory order, setting apart money for their support, unless the estate is solvent, and able to pay all just debts, and leave a sufficient fund out of which to pay the sum necessary for their support, and it was error in the Chancellor to grant said order, when the solvency of the estate was denied, till it had been ascertained, by the report of a Master in Chancery, or in some other legal way, that there would be a fund after the payment of the debts of the estate.

Judgment reversed.

Ingraham & Crawford, by Peabody, for plaintiff in error.

Bingham and B. H. Hill for defendant in error.

Jas. Marting and Paul Key, persons of color, plaintiffs in error, vs. The State, defendant in error: Burglary in the night—From Muscogee.

BROWN, C. J.—The bill of exceptions in this case was a general one that the jury found contrary to law and evidence. Held, that there was not sufficient legal evidence to sustain the verdict.

Ramsey & Ramsey, per Jas. Russel, for plaintiff in error.

Thornton, Solicitor General, for the State.

The World in Miniature.

Gen. Hancock persistently refuses to become a candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, or to interfere with the local politics of the State, so long as he may remain in the army.

Don Piatt, the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial (Rep.) sensibly remarks: I do not know any more efficient way to reconstruction, than a return of the leading Confederates to office. I would be glad to see Davis and Breckinridge back in the Senate, and Lee, Longstreet, and the rest of the army, once more in the service.

REFORM FARM SCHOOLS.—In a number of States, North and West of us, schools of this character are in successful and satisfactory operation. The one in New Jersey has accomplished the happiest practical results. There the institution is supported by the State. The vagrant boys are gathered up, all over the State, and taken to this school, where they are morally and intellectually instructed, and at the same time required to perform manual labor on the farm. Boys guilty of petty offences and crimes, instead of being sent to public workhouses and penitentiaries, where there is scarcely a hope of reform, are sentenced to these schools, from which, after acquiring an education, elevated in moral tone, and prepared for the duties of life, they are sent forth into the world.

We append the following from the Cincinnati Commercial, descriptive of the school in Ohio:

LEGISLATIVE VISIT TO THE OHIO REFORM FARM SCHOOL.

LANCASTER, OHIO, Jan. 20, 1869.

The interests and care of the people of Ohio in this reformatory, is indicated in the annual visit of their Representatives to the institution. On yesterday, the committee, consisting of Messrs. Golden, Griswold, Carter, Simmons and Berry, of the Senate; and Messrs. Rutter, Moffett, Worth, Wilson, Carpenter, Rames, Headley and Hendricks, of the House of Representatives, with Col. Samuel Pike, Sergeant-at-Arms, visited the institution.

The Hocking Valley Railroad, just opened, afforded a safe and speedy transit to Lancaster, and thence six miles in carriages over a mud road to the Farm. Soon after our arrival we were summoned to the dining-room and enjoyed an excellent dinner prepared by Mrs. Howe, the efficient matron. The afternoon was spent in visiting and examining the schools. These were found under excellent discipline, and a good system of instruction efficiently carried out. All the branches of common education are taught, and one class is advancing in algebra.

In one grade of forty-eight boys, it was ascertained that twenty-eight of them could not read when they entered the institution.

In the evening the boys were assembled in the chapel and addressed by the members of the Legislative Committee and the Commissioners. Their appearance showed good health and cheerfulness. Their attention and interest inspired the heart and lips of those who addressed them, and the occasion will be long remembered.

To-day, the committee visited the farm, orchards and gardens. These were found in good condition, and so were the buildings and all the surroundings.

These gentlemen devoted their time assiduously to the object of their visit, faithfully discharging their duty in examining the internal management and outward working of the entire system adopted for the reformation and education of these boys, their preparation for outside life, its duties and trials.

WHICH' ACCOUNTS FOR THE MILK IN THE COCOANUT.—Business has got so far ahead of the season at Redwine & Fox's corner, that the Thermometer in "The Live Drug Store" indicated June weather yesterday. Some one suggests that the temperature is always high in "The Live Drug Store" because of the crowds of people to be found there. The fact is everybody in and out of Atlanta has to go there at least once a day—some to buy their superior article of Fire Test Coal Oil, at manufacturers' prices; some to buy a part of their 1200 boxes of Window Glass, of all sizes; some to buy White Lead, Oils, and Mineral Paints, and everybody to buy Landreth's warranted Garden Seeds, of which Redwine & Fox have just received a stock for the million. jan15-dtf

Adair & Brother.

Messrs. Adair & Brother invited the public to call and see their extensive stock of groceries and produce. We can assure our readers that they will be well treated if they visit this firm, and will find them as reliable merchants as the country affords.

Beeves.

Prime beeves readily bring five cents per pound, gross. The majority of the fine beeves came from Tennessee and North Georgia. The demand is good.

The Fruits.

The family of the late J. L. Byington, of Macon, will receive over $14,000 life insurance. About $5,000, we learn, was insured in the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company, Godfrey & Magill agents in this city.

A Leyden.

Mr. A Leyden informs the public that he will keep Guanos, Phosphates, and Fertilizers for sale in quantities to suit purchasers. Farmers will bear this in mind, and give him a call at his store on Alabama street.

Don Juan in the Senate.

A Senator yesterday in the course of a debate made a quotation from the "Don Juan" of Byron. Hereafter he will be known as the Don Juan of the Senate!

Worthy of Mention.

In the Senate yesterday it was stated that a gentleman in Meriwether county was the father of twenty-five children! If they are all boys their votes will be worth something.

Dissappointed.

A large crowd assembled in front of our office yesterday evening to see Prof. Bond perform on the wire. As he didn't walk the wire, the crowd didn't see him. Efforts were made to induce "Our Ike" to "skin the cat" on the wire, but he declined. Prof. Bond, it is said, will perform this evening.

Sons of Temperance.

We learn that steps are being taken to re-organize the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, in this State, at an early date. It is proposed to hold a meeting in this city for that purpose next month.

Elegant Lounges.

Green, red, and striped lounges, and light, durable step-ladders can be obtained at Hendrick's popular carpet store.

G. H. & A. W. Force.

Upon entering the store of the Messrs. Force one is forcibly impressed with the extent of their trade and the excellent quality of their goods. They do a large business in the boot and shoe line, because they are courteous and offer fine inducements. They en-force their claims to public patronage by good articles at moderate figures, and we take pleasure in commending them to the public.

Phillips & Crew.

Who is it that does not know, or has never heard, of this popular firm? Not to know them is to argue yourself unknown! The Central Book and Music Store, over which they preside, is thronged daily with both sexes. The ladies like to visit this emporium of knowledge and news, of arts, sciences and polite literature, of music and painting, because here they find something to please the eye and satisfy the mind. The clerks are prompt and courteous, and in themselves somewhat of an attraction. In fact, the entire Crew are popular with the public. If you want elegant literature, standard works, school-books, music, and stationery, the Central Book Store is the place to go. Either one of the clerks or proprietors will take pleasure in showing you the pianos and organs they have for sale, and display their powers in instrumental and vocal music.

Stephens and Stephens.

From our advertising columns it will be seen that Hon. Alexander H. Stephens and John A. Stephens, Esq., have opened a law office in this city. The senior member is well know as a lawyer, orator and statesman of the finest order. Although he will remain at Crawfordsville, he will give his counsel in all matters and on all questions where it may be desired, and give his special attention and attendance to all litigated cases and criminal trials in all the higher courts, State and Federal. The junior member has permanently located in this city, and will give his close attention to all matters submitted to him in the line of his profession. We welcome the firm to our citizens, and wish them success.

Our Fat Boy.

The Forsyth Advertiser, of the 2d says: "We had the pleasure of a visit last week from Col. Thomas McCarroll Acton, traveling agent of that sterling journal THE CONSTITUTION. Col. Acton has been in the newspaper business for many years, and before the war was very successful. As we remarked to him, we believed he had been successful, as he was the only real fat printer we ever saw."

Velocipede Club.

We learn that a Velocipede Club will shortly be organized in the Gate City, a little on the exclusive order, as only men of weight and standing will be admitted as members. A former judge of the county Court; a renowned rock mason; "our fat boy," and a gentleman from Milton county, it is said, will be among the first contestants for the prize for skillful practice on the "wooden horse."

John Templeton.

John Templeton is becoming popular with the theatre-going public, because he has exhibited such a commendable spirit in catering for their amusement. He has displayed remarkable energy in procuring the best of "Star" performers, and fine taste in placing on the boards chaste pieces. His object is to elevate the Stage and not to depreciate it. For this he deserves the thanks of all lovers of the drama.

The Last Night.

Don't fail to attend Davis' Theater tonight, as it is the last appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Watkins. The greatest of all sensational dramas will be produced with new appointments, scenery, &c., including the sinking of a full-rigged ship, for the benefit of Harry Watkins. As the evening will be pleasant (the clerk of the weather having so determined) we trust that there will be such a demonstration in point of numbers, as will fill the hall to its utmost capacity and prove a benefit in the true acceptation of the term. The play for the evening is Watkins' thrilling drama of "Foul Play."

The White Fawn.

This great spectacular performance, with all its rich and gorgeous surroundings, will be presented for the first time to our citizens on Monday night. Whitman's ballet troupe make their appearance at the same time, with such stars as Diana, Spolke and Bernard, and a full dramatic company. Among the great attractions of the evening will be the Fifteen Thousand Dollar Transformation Scene, worth, in itself, the price of admission. There is bound to be a great rush, so we advise our readers to secure seats to day.

A Hint.

Not long since the alarm of fire was sounded, and the fire found to be progressing slowly on the roof of a small dwelling. A gentleman residing in the neighborhood was hurriedly preparing to go to it, when his wife remarked to him, "Now, Billy dear, don't go on top of that house! You know you haven't got your life insured!" Sensible to the last.

Armstrong, Cator & Co.

Those wishing to obtain supplies of ribbons, millinery and straw goods, are referred to the card of that well known firm. Armstrong, Cator & Co., of Baltimore.—They have large stocks of their own importation, which they offer at prices defying competition.

The Mule Trade.

Since January 1st, 1869, and up to yesterday evening, three hundred and sixty-seven car loads of mules have been brought to this city, per Western and Atlantic Railroad. Estimating a car load at 21 head, we have seven thousand, seven hundred and seven mules. About three hundred have arrived by dirt road, making eight thousand in round numbers. Notwithstanding this large influx, the market continues lively, and the demand active, at full prices.

Renting Market Stalls.

The stalls in the First Market will be rented by Marshall Thomas, at three o'clock, P. M., and those of the Second Market at four o'clock, P. M. Those interested will make a note of it.

Good Templars.

Etowah Lodge, No. 3. I. O. of G. T., was organized at Cartersville, on Wednesday night by Deputy J. G. Thrower, with thirteen charter members.

A Lodge was to be organized at Columbus last night by Deputy Thrower.

Oliver & Woddail.

This "live," go-ahead firm, announce that they are in receipt of dressed hogs, bulk pork, and cow peas. If you wish any of the above articles, call early on Messrs. Oliver & Woddall, or you may lose a bargain.

S. H. Richardson & Co.

We take pleasure in directing special attention to the card of S. H. Richardson & Co., Dealers in Flour, General Commission and Forwarding Merchants, of St. Louis.

Masonic Life Insurance.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FEBRUARY 5

"To the Public."

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 4, 1869.

My attention has been called to a card of the above caption, in the press dispatches, signed "H. Morgan, W. R. Bell, C. C. Cleghorn committee," and I take this occasion to state that I was surprised to see this publication, as it was unauthorized by me.

The Treasurer's report in reference to moneys drawn by Gov. Bullock, on hypothecated bonds of the State, was refered to Committee on Finance, and by it to a sub-committee of three—named above—for investigation. When the card alluded to was presented for my approval and signature, I pronounced it improper and premature, and after various modifications and erasures a majority of the committee agreed on the card.

On reflection, my conviction of the impropriety of such a card was so strong that I called upon Gen. Morgan and, after consultation, we determined to suppress the publication of it, and it was at once withdrawn from the press.

The other two members of the committee having furnished Governor Bullock with a copy without my knowledge, and he being ignorant of the action of General Morgan and myself, telegraphed it to the country Besides the impropriety of such a course by a sub-committee, I considered it open to the same objection complained of, namely, premature publication. In reference to the last concluding sentence: "We are induced to make this request of you because of the hasty course of the Treasurer in making public certain communications." It is due to Dr. Angier to state that when he ascertained that Governor Bullock's letter in reply to his report had been sent to the city press for publication, he sent his son to me with the request that he be allowed to publish his rejoinder at the same time, which I consented to without consultation with General Morgan and Dr. Bell, for the reason that the former was off on leave of absence, and the latter was not in his seat at the time.

Papers that have published the card alluded to, are reqested to publish this also.

C. C. CLEGHORN.

Large Potatoes and How They are Grown.

B. W. Bateman, of Houston county, writes to the Macon Telegraph: I have finished digging and housing my sweet potatoes. I will give you the weight of three of them. I weighed three of them and they weighed thirty-one and a half pounds; the largest one weighed eleven and a half pounds. I have two banks containing fifty or sixty bushels, that I believe will average four pounds to the potato.

I planted in rows four feet wide, and set my plants two feet apart and cultivated them with a common sweep. The cook previous to her putting them in the oven to bake, chops them up with an axe. I would advise all who wish to raise potatoes, to break their land deep, manure heavy and plant four by two.

Advice from Boston.

The following sound advice come to us, says the Macon Telegraph, without date, all the way from Boston. Let the writer come on and bring others along with him, to help fill the South with a white population in a hurry:

BOSTON, MASS.

Fill your Southern States with a WHITE population as soon as possible and the nigger party are dead in this country. Let the South have the same proportion of whites to blacks, that Massachusetts has, and the Nigger will share the fate of the Indian on this continent. Again let me say flood the South with white population and you are all right.

HOW TO KILL A TOWN.—A late number of the Dubuque Herald has the following excellent suggestions:

If you wish to kill off a town, put up no more buildings than you are obliged to occupy yourself. If you should accidentally have an empty building, and any one should want to rent it, ask about three times its actual value. Look at every new comer with a scowl. Turn a cold shoulder to every business man and mechanic who seeks a home among you. Go abroad for wares rather than purchase of your own merchants and manufacturers at the same prices. Refuse to advertise, so that persons at a distance will not know that any business is being done in your city. A prompt and close observance of these rules will ruin any town in two years.

☞ The ancient literature of India is the subject great of attention on the part of the British Government, and exertions are being made to discover and preserve the old records of literature. Competent persons are to be sent on tours to discover the existence of old Sanscrit manuscripts relating especially to the Vedas, the Hindi law Sanscrit grammer, lexicography and philosophy, to purchase them, or if this be not possible, to have faithful copies taken of them, and send originals or copies to the library to be designed by government for their ultimate preservation.

Great Britain.

According to the return of the English Board of Trade for the year 1868, there are 56,964,260 acres of land, or 89,006 square miles in England, Wales and Scotland of this extent of territory. 31.5 per cent. is used for the cultivation of grain, 40.5 per cent. for pasturage, 223,939 acres for flax and hemp, and 3.2 per cent. is waste. In the same year the stock of cattle amounted to 9,083,416 head of horned cattle, 35,606,812 sheep and 3,189,167 swine.

Good Advice.

Let our possessions be what they may—marble palaces, broad lands, magnificent plate, or caskets of "precious stones"—they all sink in the balance against Heaven's great boon, HEALTH, and they cannot be enjoyed without it. And yet how little is it valued, and how carelessly preserved. The laws of nature cannot be violated with impunity. Night revelry, luxurious living, irregularity of meals, and a disordered appetite, will gradually destroy the power and activity of the stomach. How many ladies and gentlemen eat and drink disease at late suppers, and arise in the morning with headache, loss of appetite, feeling languid and unrefreshed. There can be no medical remedy that will turn lead into food, or poisoned drinks into nutriment, but the medical science can assist nature, supply exhausted fluids, and to a great extent correct the effects of disease. In all cases such as the above, we recommend PLANTATION BITTERS. You will find them just the thing—at the same time a most delicious tonic and appetizer.

TESTIMONIALS:
We select the following extracts for the benefit of those who have not used Rhodes' "Standard" Manure:
S. Wyatt, Esq., of Allington Plantation, near Waynesboro, Ga., writes as follows to Messrs. B M. Rhodes & Co:
"Your Phosphate I am highly delighted with; I gave it a fair trial along with several other Standard Manures, and I regard it fully equal if not superior to the best of them. On one field of 100 acres, that I am sure would not, in its natural state, have produced over 400 lbs. of seed cotton to the acre, I have already gathered 700 pounds, and think I shall get fully 800 pounds more.
"Two other fields of 100 acres, better land, I have gathered, at two pickings, over 1,000 pounds to the acre of seed cotton, and think I shall get 200 pounds more.
"I tried it, also, on corn, and found it very good, but not equal in its results to the cotton crop. Several of my neighbors, whose lands adjoin my own, and is pretty much the same character of land, who used no fertilizer at all, have signally failed, making no more than half a crop, if so much as that. Where I applied Rhodes' Phosphate the cotton was heavily fruited, boll large, the staple longer, stouter and better than where none was used, so much so that any one, even though he may never have seen the growth before, could readily see it. The only objection to it is, it causes the cotton to open faster than we can possibly gather it, at least, such is my experience."
T. C. Howard, Esq., of Darien, Ga., writes as follows:
"It is proper that I should say the results of the use of your fertilizer have been very marked and indeed surprising. I have made more cotton by its aid on worn out land, that has not been in cultivation in two years past, than I have been able to do on the best swamp or bottom land on my place in Mississippi."
ATHENS, GA., January 23 1869.
Messrs. P. P. Pease & Co., Atlanta: I applied the two tons of Rhodes' Super-Phosphate, which you furnished me last year, at the rate of 400 pounds to the acre, on thin land, considerably exhausted by continued cultivation, without manure, and have no hesitation in saying that it is an excellent fertilizer for cotton. On the eight acres to which I applied it, I picked upwards of 3,000 pounds of seed cotton — more than double what the land would have produced without the fertilizer. It is also proper to mention, that while the caterpillars stripped all the leaves and young bolls off an adjoining patch, manured with Dickson's Mixture, commencing their ravages in August, they did not attack that manured with Rhodes' Super-Phosphate until the first week in October.
WILLIAM M. BROWNE.
Thousands of certificates and letters could be published, showing the value of Rhodes' "standard," a quick and permanent fertilizer.

TESTIMONIALS:
NEAR ATLANTA, GA., December 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you, at the rate of 200 pounds per acre on cotton. I am satisfied its use produced a crop three times greater than the land would produce without it. GEO. S. KEY.
NEAR ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 1, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied 300 pounds per vere of Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you. Notwithstanding a ten weeks' drought and the attack of the caterpillar, I gathered 850 pounds per acre. From the same land, without the Guano, I gathered only 300 pounds cotton — say less than one-fourth the quantity. E. MORRIS.
ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 12th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I used this year the Soluble Pacific Guano, bought of you, at the rate of 100 pounds per acre on cotton planted three feet apart in the drill. I am confident it is a pure article and believe it increased the yield double, notwithstanding a six weeks' drought and serious attack of caterpillar. J. M. CALHOUN.
ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother, Gents: I bought of you last spring one ton Soluble Pacific Guano and put it on cotton. It came fully up to my expectations and I cheerfully recommend it to planters as a profitable fertilizer for cotton. M. G. DOBBINS.
COLUMBUS, GA., December, 1868.
John S. Reese & Co., Dear Sirs: Another season confirms my previously expressed convictions, that the Soluble Pacific Guano, as compared with Peruvian, is fully as good—indeed better. I have now tested it sufficiently, using each side by side for two seasons, applying the same weight of each per acre, and in every case the Pacific has given the best results on cotton, corn, potatoes and small grain, and the testimony I have from a great many planters confirms my experience.
WM. H. YOUNG.
Charles A. Peabody, Esq., of Lee county, Alabama, in a letter to William H. Young, says:
"The Peruvian Guano I had before used, and know it to be as invaluable fertilizer for cotton. I now find the Soluble Pacific to be equally as good. At the same price I would as soon have it for cotton or corn as the Peruvian; some of my hands insist that it is better." dec15-d3m

MERCHANTS and SHIPPERS.
THE changes in classification made from time to time by other routes, though of little moment, may lead to misapprehension, in future by the Great Southern Freight Line
Via Savannah.
To meet such cases and avoid the necessity of frequent changes, on our part, Merchants are informed that our Rates and Classification will, at any time, be made
As Low as by Any Other Route, and any accidental over-charge will be promptly investigated and corrected, if brought to the notice of Railroad Agent at point of delivery.
